

Amit Rogel

Ph.D. in Robotics and Music
Post Doctorate, Department of Industrial Engineering and Management BGU

WHERE AI MEETS EMPATHY: THE FUTURE OF AUTISM CARE

What if a robot could help a child better understand emotions, regulate feelings, and communicate in new ways? Join Amit Rogel, a pioneering researcher at BGU's Azrieli Center of Autism, for a fascinating look at how AI, neuroscience, and robotics are converging to create innovative tools that can transform the lives of autistic children—and shape the future of personalized care.